Hi Adam,

Thank you again for your help with everything, our London visit was very helpful. We have all been in transit back to the states over the last couple of days and are beginning to work out next steps.

We'd love to find time in the coming weeks to sit down with Vegas and team

We're working backwards against the launch dates which if I remember correctly (forgive me a bit jet-lagged) is in April.

Excited for the next steps, we'll be in touch this week. Thank you all again for your help to make our London visit happen. Hope you all have a good weekend!

Best, Isaiah
